

Statement of Purpose

❖ Education and Training

CABEC shall improve the practice of energy consulting by encouraging its members to participate in a continuing program of professional development regarding the State of California's building energy regulations, building energy analysis, energy conservation technologies, ethics, compliance documentation, and any matters that will contribute to the professional standards of those engaged in energy consulting.

❖ Certification

CABEC is the certifying body for Certified Energy Plans Examiners (CEPEs). CABEC also offers a Certified Energy Analyst (CEA) program. Members shall be encouraged to demonstrate their knowledge via certification. Certified Energy Analysts shall be held to the highest standard of competence.

❖ Information Network

CABEC shall provide its members with an information forum for development and exchange of ideas relating to code issues, computer modeling, energy conservation, and other issues through a continuing program of professional development.

❖ Ethics

CABEC shall require that all members subscribe to a code of ethics. The premise of the CABEC code of ethics is that members shall demonstrate a consistent pattern of reasonable care and competence in their work.
